

VIM Cheat Sheet PDF for quick reference [Updated]

VIM Cheat Sheet PDF for quick reference [Updated]

Increasing productivity is always an important part of job life, here we are offering you the VIM cheat sheet pdf that will boost your productivity level.

Tutorials - Feb 21, 22 - by Susith Nonis - 4 min Read

List of content you will read in this article:

- 1. Vim Cheat sheet PDF
- 2. Conclusion

Vim is an advanced, powerful UNIX-based text editor that has relatively more features than its previous version i.e. vi editors which many developers and system administrators use. As VIM is a free text editor and has a lot of VIM commands that are difficult to learn or memorize. So in this article, We have prepared an amazing VIM cheat sheet pdf for you to save your time and by using it you can boost your productivity and easier to work with VI/VIM Editor.

Let's start:

Vim Cheat sheet PDF

1. Vim Quit

:qa	To close all the file
:w	Save the content
ZQ	Quit without checking changes
:wq / :x	Save and close
:qa!	Close all files, ignoring all the changes
:q	Simply close file
:q!	Close file, ignoring changes
ZZ	Save and quit the current file

2. Vim Clipboard

x	Remove a character
P	Paste the copied content before the cursor
dd	Remove a line
"*y / "+y	Paste to the system clipboard
p	Paste
yy	Yank current line
"*p / "+p	Paste the copied content from the system clipboard

3. Editing in Vim

<C-R>	Redo changes
A	Append from the end of line
i	Insert
o	Next line
O	Previous line
s	Delete char and insert
a	Append
S	Delete line and insert
C	Delete until end of the line and insert
r	Replace one character
2dd	delete two lines
R	Enter Replace mode
u	Undo changes
cc	replace the whole line
ciw	replace the word
dd	delete a line
diw	delete the character under the cursor

[linux_vps]

4. Search in Vim

Here we have added VIM Search Commands.

N	Find the previous match
/pattern	Find a pattern
:cn[ext]	Go to the next pattern found
:cn[revious]	Go to the previous pattern found
#	The previous whole word under the cursor
*	Get the next whole word under the cursor

5. Moving Cursor in Vim

j	Move down
h	Move left
L	Go to the bottom of the screen
k	Move up

l Move right

e Go to the end of the word

W Go to the start of the word

M Go to the middle of the screen

6. Vim Visual Commands

> Move text right

< Move text left

~ switch case

u Convert selected text to lowercase

U Convert selected text to uppercase

7. Vim Macros

@a run the macro 'a'

qa record the macro 'a'

@@ run the last run macro again

q stop the recording of macro

Conclusion

We went over many areas of the vim cheat sheet commands and shortcuts that we can download PDF from the above-given link. We talked about cursor movement, searching, editing, deleting, and exiting, among other things. We can work on this editor without using a mouse because it is advanced enough to accomplish tasks with a keyboard. This offers all of the functionality we require for a variety of tasks. Also, this is similar to the vi cheat sheet.

Keep Exploring.

People also read:

- Basic Linux command cheat sheet
- CentOS command cheat sheet
- Bash scripting cheat sheet
- Python Cheat Sheet
- How to Undo and Redo in Vim/Vi editor?
- VIM Commands with Examples
- How to exit Vim

MonoVM Services: Dedicated Server, Domain Services, VPS Hosting, Web Hosting and SSL Certificate

Follow us on social media:

